NOTES TO PARTICIPANTS

- The full benefit of the seminar depends on each attendee's presence and participation throughout the duration of the seminar.
- It is expected that all required reading will be completed prior to the seminar; it is beneficial to read that material listed as recommended.
- The seminar is potentially the beginning of a journey of progress toward the influence of anti-racism.
- Two Continuing Education Units will be available for those completing the seminar in full.
- Please let us know if you have any special dietary or scholarship needs.
- The Nurturing Wholeness In Community Level One Seminar is required prior to taking the Level Two Seminar.

Class size is limited to 16 participants on a first come, first served basis.

BENEFITS OF THE SEMINAR

- The opportunity for significant personal learning and growth.
- Biblical and Theological reflection on matters of racism and inclusiveness.
- Increased understanding between various racial/ethnic groups.
- Information about resources for further reading, study and anti-racism advocacy.

"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

Gal. 3:28 Revised Standard Version

"For he is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility..."

Eph. 2:14 Revised Standard Version
