CENTERING ON GOD'S LOVE

As a people of faith, and especially as Pastors, one of the more difficult tasks we face is keeping our focus on God. We are often pulled this way and that way. Often we can find ourselves acting more like firemen, putting out relational fires within the Church, than the spiritual guides we are called to be. Frequently, we are over committed, under paid, without meaningful relationships and desperate for rest and renewal time. As a result, we can find it difficult to keep the main thing, the main thing. Eventually, we need time to center ourselves and focus on God's love for us and others.

The Pen-Del Conference of the FAMLP is proud to offer this opportunity for rest and renewal. It is based on the book, "He Loves Me—Learning to Live In the Father's Affection," written by Wayne Jacobsen. Come and join us as we learn to center ourselves and keep the main thing, the main thing. Let's take time together to center on God's love.
